

HEALTHY WEBSITES: USING THE INTERNET TO ANSWER CONSUMER HEALTH QUESTIONS

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2005
9:00 A.M. - NOON
MIDDLETOWN LIBRARY SERVICE CENTER

Presented by
Alberta L. Richetelle, Program Director, Healthnet
Judith Kronick, Healthnet Librarian

Healthnet: Connecticut Consumer Health Information Network
University of Connecticut Health Center Library

This program will demonstrate some of the best online resources to use to answer specific kinds of consumer health questions and teach you how to evaluate websites to make sure the information you find is of high quality, accurate, and authoritative. Attendees will have an opportunity to learn about and use online tutorials on diseases, medical tests, and procedures, to find malpractice information about physicians, to locate online medication and herbal product information, and much more.

Directions to the Middletown Library Service Center are at <http://www.cslib.org/facmlsc.htm>.
